MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Foreign Documents Division

THROUGH: Assistant Director, Operations

SUBJECT: English-Polish Dictionary Project

1. Materials related to the English-Polish dictionary about which we spoke over the telephone this morning are attached.

2. Completion of the printing of the English-Polish dictionary and publication of the entire Polish-English dictionary are in need of a sponsor. [] informs me that the Department of Agriculture cannot subsidize the project. Mr. Georgevitch of G-2, Department of the Army, indicates that his Agency is interested only in a Polish-English military dictionary and that a contract between the Army and Georgetown University has been or is about to be let for this purpose.

3. I believe that FDD is the only organization in CIA that might be interested in sponsoring this project financially, hence I shall particularly appreciate your judgment on this matter. If you think of any other Office within the Agency that should be consulted, please let me know.
